CHALLENGE YOUR SKILLS, ENCOURAGE YOUR FAITH

At the Northwestern College Total Performance Soccer Camp players will learn the newest and best training techniques available. The Northwestern coaching staff is dedicated to helping soccer players become the best players they can be. Each camper will be given opportunity for competitive play, individual instruction, and attention throughout the week. They will receive an evaluation of their skills and be given drills to help them improve their skills for the upcoming year.

Athletes will be tested and challenged physically and spiritually during the daily activities of camp. Campers will learn about the characteristics of Christian athletes through daily “chalk talks” by coaches and staff while they learn necessary skills for competitive soccer.

CAMP STAFF

Director Greg Wheaton

Greg Wheaton has been head coach of the Northwestern College men's team since 2000 and has since turned the program into an annual conference title contender. During the 2006 season, Wheaton became the all-time leader in Northwestern men's soccer program history for career coaching wins. The Eagles have reached 4 Upper Midwest Athletic Conference (UMAC) post-season tournament championship games, winning the title for the first time in school history in 2005.

A former NCAA Division I player and two-time all-conference honoree for Liberty University, Greg has played professional soccer with the Minnesota Thunder of the USISL, the Minnesota Amateur Soccer League (MASL) and the Minnesota State Select Team from 2000–2002. Other professional playing stops along his career path include Brazil, Bolivia, Africa, and the Middle East.

Coaches

The camp staff features current and past players and coaches from Northwestern College, as well as high school, college, and club coaches from the Twin Cities area.
